June 25, 2023

Your word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path.
-Ps 119:105

You are my refuge and my shield; your word is my source of hope.
-Ps 119:114

I rise early, before the sun is up; I cry out for help and put my hope in your words.
-Ps 119:147

The very essence of your words is truth; all your just regulations will stand forever.
-Ps 119:160

God's Word is a:

Lamp / Light that provides Direction

Refuge / Shield that provides Protection and Rest

Source that provides Hope and Help

Truth that provides Stability

When it comes to God's word. We need to:

Read it

Learn it

Memorize it

Know it

Share it

Small Group Questions

What is a high/Low from this past week?

According to the verses we looked at, what are some of the things God's word gives/provides?

Which of these would be useful for your family/friends right now?

Which of these mean more to you now? (Why?)

Which of these verses stick out to you most right now? Why?

What is something you need to be doing more with God's Word?

What are one or two things the group can pray for?
(Yourself, Family friends, illness, work, games, projects, relationships, your walk with God, stress, anxiety, sleeplessness, someone to share God with, help to stop/start doing something...)
